

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

Faculty

E. Frankland

The international studies program offers a broad interdisciplinary curriculum leading to an associate of arts degree. This program draws on courses from anthropology, economics, world language, geography, history, political science, and sociology. The curriculum provides a strong substantive background in world affairs along with analytic and language skills to prepare the student who wishes to pursue additional study and a career in government services, business, law or education.
